"Sawasdee Kha "

(Hello)

After graduating with a Bachelor of Science degree in political science from a university in Thailand, Wipa decided to live her life like no other. She turned away from a 9 to 5 job in the city of Bangkok, to study cooking, a dream her heart called her to fulfill. With a scholarship and patronage from HRH Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn, Wipa had a unique opportunity to learn more about culinary arts and service. She was privileged to study Thailand's ancient, authentic, and finest cuisine at the Thai Royal Grand Palace (Chakri Dynasty) for 2 years. That's the starting point of her never-ending passion for preparing and serving only the finest Thai cuisine. Her experience over more than 10 years includes her successful career at Four Seasons Hotel, Macau as sous-chef and as head chef at one of the top 5 Thai restaurants in Seattle, WA.

With all her knowledge, experience, and passion she wants to introduce you to "Taste of Thai by Wipa", a restaurant where customer will enjoy the finest cuisine from palace to village full of authenticity, quality and meticulous execution.

Signature Dishes

Chef Recommended

SD1: Wipa's Khow Mun Som Tum 🌶️ $20.95

From this ancient recipe, we begin by cooking jasmine rice with coconut milk infused with butterfly pea flowers, sugar and salt. The resulting creamy rice is made a royal blue color in this way. We serve it with Thai-style grilled chicken thigh and central-region papaya salad (tomatoes, green beans, peanuts, garlic and sun-dried Thai chili in a fish sauce & sweet-lime dressing). Enjoy this special offering, a rare treat even for those in Thailand. GF

SD2: Wipa's Ka-nom Jeen Nham Prik 🌶️ (Spaghetti Rice Noodles in Thai Peanut Curry Sauce) $20.95

"Kha-Nom Jeen", in our Thai language, is fermented rice vermicelli. This recipe is from the Thai royal palace. The sweet & sour curry (Nham Prik) is blended with peanuts, tamarind puree and bergamot fruit and juice. Next, we add aromatic hot chili oil infused with ground shallots, garlic, and lemon grass. We serve the curry on top of the vermicelli, simmered banana blossoms and sliced green beans. We finish this royal dish with our exclusive tempura kale and prawns and a boiled egg on the side.

SD3: Thai Yellow Curry Puff (Chicken Yellow Curry Filling) $6.95

Homemade puff pastry dough, yellow curry filling (pea, carrot, diced potatoes, ground chicken). The history of this dessert, were blended through western and Indian culinary style, the dish became popular among the Muslim community in Thailand and was later brought into the palace by one of the Royal family members.

SD4: Suki Hang (Stir Fried Glass Noodles with Siamese Sauce)

Chicken, Beef, Pork, Tofu, Vegetable $ 17

Prawn $ 20

Thai dish with the Japanese name!! Sukiyaki is Japanese hot pot, and Thai people took the inspiration and started making our own hot pot served with flavorful hot sauce. We still call this hot pot "sukiyaki" or more commonly just "Suki" for short. Then the hot pot evolved into "Suki Hang" which is simply the stir-fried version of the dish. Wipa's scrumptious hot sauce for the dish is made of garlic, Sriracha sauce, sugar, vinegar, and cilantro. In the hot wok, she adds meats, glass noodles and a variety of vegetables (Napa cabbage, carrots, scallion, onion). She finishes the dish with ground white peppers and toasted white sesame seeds.

Appetizer (Rong Tong)

A1: Deep Fried Tofu..... $10.95

Deep-fried until golden brown and served with sweet & sour chili sauce.

A2: Cream Cheese Wonton $10.95

An instant customer favorites!! High-quality cream cheese mixed with artificial crab and wrapped by wontons. Deep-fried until golden brown and served with sweet & sour chili sauce.

A3a: Deep Fried Spring Rolls, Ham & Cheese..... $10.95

Ham & Cheddar Cheese, make up our second-to-none egg roll filling. It's wrapped in cooked rice papers before being deep-fried to perfect golden brown and served with sweet & sour dipping sauce (Veggies) or Sriracha sauce (Ham & Cheese).

A3b: Deep Fried Spring Rolls, Vegetables $10.95

Cabbage, carrot, edamame, sweet potato, bamboo shoot, onion and leek. Served with sweet & sour dipping sauce.

A4: Thai Chips & Dip $10.95

Wipa lightly-flours and deep-fries the kale and serves it with her exclusive Thai dipping salsa made from a chili paste vinaigrette mixed with green onion, ground peanuts, coconut milk and cilantro. Think about it as a Thai version of chips and dip with healthy chips.

A5a & A5b: Thai Satay Chicken $12.95, Tofu $10.95

Charbroiled CHICKEN (A5a) or TOFU (A5b) marinated in a mixture of coconut milk, lemongrass and turmeric powder dipped in our exclusive house-made peanut sauce and served with Ar-Jad (cucumber salad). GF

A6: Fresh Steamed Rolls (Por Piah Sod Poo)..... $12.95

Chef Recommended

Unlike other restaurant's fresh rolls, Wipa introduces Por Piah Sod Poo authentically available in Thailand. Fresh cucumbers, green onion, tofu and bean sprouts wrapped by cooked rice papers, drizzled with five spices sweet tamarind sauce and sprinkled with egg floss and crab meat all served with a pinch of yellow mustard.

A7: Chicken Wings $10.95

Crispy fried chicken wing, served with sweet & sour sauce.

Salad (Yum)

S1: Som Tum Thai (Papaya Salad) $12.95

The delicious salad blends shredded green papaya, tomatoes, and green beans crushed and mixed by pestle and mortar with Thai chilies and garlic seasoned by house-made scrumptious Som-Tum dressing sprinkled with peanuts and finished with simmered shrimp on top. GF

S2: Yum Som-O (Grapefruit Salad) $12.95

This recipe is adapted from one of the Thai Royal Palace's. King Rama V went to visit up-country in Chainat province, Thailand. This province is famous for their pomelo (Som-O in Thai), so they offered this fruit to the king who brought it back to the palace. Then the chef of the palace created this recipe as a savory fruit salad for the king. Wipa substitutes pink grapefruit for pomelo and marinates the fruit with coconut milk and chili paste vinaigrette, then tosses with roasted coconut flakes and ground peanut. Yum Som-O is topped with simmered prawns to bring you a dish fit for you and Thai Royalty. GF

S3: Larb Gai (North-Eastern Thai Salad)..... $12.95

Ground Chicken, Saw-tooth coriander, cilantro, scallion, shallot, mint, home-made rice-powder, Thai E-San spicy vinaigrette (Thai dried-chili flakes, fish sauce, syrup, and lime juice).

S4: Yum Woon Sen (Glass Noodles Salad) $15

This popular Thai street food salad combines vermicelli from mung beans with ground chicken and shrimp. The dish is one of Wipa's favorite. She adds fresh vegetables (onion, scallions, tomatoes, peanuts and cilantro) to the noodles. Then she seasons it with authentic Thai street dressing made from fish sauce, lime juice, sugar and fresh Thai chili. GF

S5: Yum Nuah Ma Kua Proh $15 (Seared Beef Salad with Thai Eggplants)

Thin-sliced seared beef in a spicy, Thai cilantro-garlic dressing mixed with plenty of Thai herbs (lemongrass, kaffir lime leaves, Thai basil, mint and shallot) and young Thai eggplant for even more exotic flavor. GF

Curry & Soup (Gang & Tom)

(All Gluten Free)

Served with jasmine white rice

Brown Rice, Roti (add)	$3
Garlic Fried Rice, Coconut Blue Rice (add)	$6
Chicken, Beef, Pork, Tofu, Vegetables	$16.95
Prawn, Crab Meat.....	$19.95

C1: Hot & Sour Soup (Tom Yum)

Taste of Thai Tom Yum broth is made from lemongrass, kaffir lime leaves and galangal, the three musketeers of Thai kitchen, which are not only aromatic herbs, but also good for human body temperature balance. We flavor our Tom Yum broth with fresh lime juice, fish sauce, sugar, mushrooms, and heat from fresh Thai chilies. (Vegan choice)

C2: Coconut Soup (Tom Kha Kati)

"Kha" in Thai means galangal and "Kati" means coconut cream. Therefore, Tom Kha Kati is the execution of simmering galangal in coconut cream. We put kaffir lime leave for more aromatic taste and season our Tom Kha broth with fresh lime juice, palm sugar, fish sauce, mushrooms, and fresh Thai chilies. (Vegan choice)

C3: Green Curry (Gang Kiow Whan)

Taste of Thai authentic green curry in coconut milk with Thai eggplant, Thai basil, bell pepper and avocado. Consider trying our green curry with Roti as the curry was influenced by an ancient East Indian recipe.

C4: Red Curry (Gang Dang)

Taste of Thai authentic red curry in coconut milk with cut pineapple, bell peppers and Thai basil. Red curry is the most favorite curry in Thailand.

C5: Yellow Curry (Gang Kari)

We cook curry in coconut milk with potatoes, onions and carrots served with Ar-Jad (cucumber salad). In Thai history, spices were brought to Thailand through traders from Burma, India, Persia and Middle East. (Vegan choice)

C6: Mussaman Curry

This recipe is also found in Thai literature composed by Thai King Rama II. We borrow directly from that ancient recipe with spices including a perfect blend of cinnamon, cloves, cardamom, and star anise added to our Mussaman curry paste. For today, we put fresh fruits and vegetables such as potatoes, onions, peanuts, carrots and pineapple. We recommend you try Mussaman beef with Roti (as the carbohydrate) to turn back the clock and feel how Siamese traditionally ate this curry.

C7: Pa-Nang Curry

Chef Recommended

Another curry influenced by East Indian's cuisine. This famous curry blends several spices into our Pa-Nang paste which is then mixed with coconut cream. We add meat stewed until tender then season it with fish sauce and palm sugar, For a Thai finishing touch we add bell pepper and sprinkle finely chopped kaffir lime leaves on top. Pa-Nang Nua (beef) is the most flavorful and popular Pa-Nang curry among Thai people. By exploring the past, having Pa-Nang Nua with Roti, you might discover your new favorite flavor.
